

CLUB BOYS AND

THE STATE FAIR

Clemson College, Oct. 17.—All over South Carolina club boys have their eyes turned toward the state fair to be held in Columbia October 23-28. A large number of these young farmers will attend this great agricultural display and see for themselves the wonderful exhibits and attractions. The state fair officials, realizing the advantages in having the youngsters present on this occasion, have decided to make Wednesday, Oct. 25, a special day for the club boys who are present.

Every club boy who attends the state fair on this day will be given a free luncheon on the fair grounds by the fair officials, according to announcement by L. L. Baker and B. O. Williams. The admission to the gates will be reduced to fifteen cents for all club boys present, not only on this day, but during the entire week. At the luncheon addresses will be delivered by Governor Wilson G. Harvey, Director W. W. Long of the Clemson college extension service, and state fair officials. Other prominent people will attend the luncheon as guests of the club boys.

In order to make the necessary preparations for the affair every club boy should go direct to the Boys' Club headquarters at the left of the main entrance of the large steel building and register as soon as he enters the fair grounds. This will reserve a place for him at the luncheon; and he can get other information which he needs, as this will be the boys' own corner. Next to the club boys headquarters will be found the corn club exhibit, which every club boy should carefully study and observe. Tickets may be had by the boys from their county agents before they go to the fair. This should not be neglected, for if the club boys expect to get their tickets for fifteen cents, they must purchase them from the county agents, or else identify themselves as club boys at the gates of the fair grounds.

"Meet me at the state fair" should be the slogan of every club boy who can possibly see his way to attend. A large crowd of club boys will be on hand, and every clubster who misses will miss a wonderful opportunity.

Taylor-Gardepe

The State, 19th.
Miss Lola Mabel Taylor, young business woman of Columbia, was married yesterday afternoon to John Francis Gardepe, the ceremony being solemnized at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. R. S. Truesdale, pastor of Main Street Methodist church, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. R. Goodman, 2212 Rembert street. Mrs. Theron Peters was the pianist of the occasion, playing an introductory program and the wedding march.

The bride wore a traveling suit of brown broad cloth with collar and cuffs of black fur and a chic little turban of brown duvetyn and beaded feathers. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of bride roses.

Included in the gathering of relatives and close friends present at the simple service were the bride's mother, Mrs. Lucy Taylor, her sister, Etha, her brother, Voigt, and her cousin, Miss Maggie Thomasson, all of Newberry. The house was decorated in quantities of bright garden flowers.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gardepe left for a wedding trip to Washington and New York and will also visit the former's family in Redbank, N. J. Upon their return they will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Goodman.

Mr. Gardepe, who is originally from New Jersey, has been living in Columbia for the last two years and holds the position of automatic chief in the office of the Western Union Telegraph company.

The bride is statistical clerk in the same office.

There is a growing suspicion that if we can abolish diplomats we could then abolish armaments.

It is easy enough to figure out a living wage for the other fellow to live on.

What's in a name? Mrs. Frank Happy is suing for a divorce in San Francisco.
